

WAHSA presents a contemporary collection of the best practices of innovative long term care and senior housing organizations...

What are other long term care and senior housing organizations doing to raise the bar of quality and to implement new programs related to activities, administration, foodservice, funding, human resources, in-service programming, marketing, nursing, social service, finance, housekeeping, interior decorating, laundry, and maintenance?

WAHSA asked that question and you responded with nearly 200 best practices pertaining to almost every department within a long term care/senior housing organization.

We have compiled this collection of best practices into one publication so that you can learn from the experience and creativity of your peers. This publication, Celebrating Our Pride -- Volume II, is a treasure chest of new ideas, innovative strategies, successful programs, and working solutions already up and running in facilities comparable to yours.

This is your opportunity to bring these practices into your organization. This second edition of Celebrating Our Pride is now available for $35. And, if your organization is named on the attached list of contributors to this new publication, you qualify for a $10 discount on the purchase of the book.
