

The
Gratitude Attitude
 In Senior Housing

Are your senior housing tenants continually looking for more meaningful activities? Do you ever wish your tenants would take more ownership of their activities and plan more outings and events on their own and with other tenants? Would you like some tools that can effectively squelch the negative attitudes that occasionally can come into play in your tenant-to-tenant and tenant-to-employee relationships?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then perhaps it's time to bring some fun, laughter and positive attitudes into your senior housing environment!

Fun? Positive Attitudes? In senior housing????

It is all possible and actually quite easy with WAHSA's new tool kit — The Gratitude Attitude In Senior Housing. This practical step-by-step guidebook details more than 250 activities promoting 12 monthly themes. The book also includes a list of senior savvy websites and more than 100 motivational quotations and inspiring thoughts.

Don't let any more time go to waste. Help your tenants plan some fulfilling activities that build positive attitudes and fun living environments by ordering The Gratitude Attitude in Senior Housing today.
